STEEL PRICES ARE CUT IN HALF

Wilson Approves of Prices Fixed In Voluntary Agreement

TAKE IMMEDIATE EFFECT

WASHINGTON. Sept. 24.—Steel prices in the United States were cut in half today when President Wilson approved a scale of quotations fixed in a voluntary agreement made by producers with the war industries board. The general public as well as the American and allied governments will share in the reductions, which go into immediate effect and the agreement provides that producers shall not reduce wages.

The prices will obtain until January 1, 1918, to be revised then if investigation shows they are inequitable.

The entire output of American steel plants will be distributed under supervision of the war board, which exercising the powers of priority of transportation given the government by congress will apportion it in a way best to meet the country's war requirements.

Months of Negotiations.

The price agreement was reached after months of negotiations between steel producers and government officials. The prices were based on cost of production estimates made by the federal trade commission after an investigation conducted at the president's direction.

Officials said tonight prices approved by the president were liberal and would allow fair profits to all steel plants and that some of the larger concerns, would make handsome profits at the prices named and production should be stimulated.

Cost of producing steel plates in some of the larger plants is now about $35 or $36 a ton, according to testimony of Joseph E. Davies, vice-chairman of the federal trade committee, before the senate committee considering the Pomerene bill. This will give a profit of $20 a ton under the price of $63 approved by the president. In the smaller mills according to Commissioner Davies' testimony the cost runs much higher. Ninety per cent of the plants Mr. Davies said at the time could sell plate at $58 and make a profit.

Hope to Control Distribution

It is the intention of the government to use to the utmost its powers to control steel distribution.

The war industries board in an order issued today divided industry into three classes, directing that preference in transportation of iron and steel and their products to be given to them in the order of their importance as related to the conduct of the war. Class A, comprising war work, comes first; Class B comprising industries indirectly related to the war, second and Class C, comprising all other industry last.

The reductions will not affect navy purchases for a time, as Secretary Daniels already has contracts for 600,000 tons of steel at prices lower than those named today. This steel will be sufficient to carry thru the 1916-1917 building program. The navy prices are $50 a short ton for shapes and $58 a short ton for plates.

Future navy contracts will be made at the higher prices. Secretary Daniels said today he was satisfied with the new prices for the future inasmuch as the public will share in them.

New Orleans, Sept. 24.—The federal district appeal board here today granted Pete Herman, world's bantamweight pugilistic champion until Nov. 15 to report for duty with the national army. ## COL. ROOSEVELT SCORES SENATOR LAFOLLETTE

Declares Wisconsin Senator Should Be Deprived of Seat

Asserted That if Congress Had Taken Action Three Years Ago That It Has Since Declaration of War, That the War Would be Over.

Kansas City, Sept. 24.—"If I were this minute a member of the United States senate I would be ashamed to sit in that body until I found out some method of depriving Senator LaFollette of his seat in that chamber which he now disgraces by his presence there," Colonel Theodore Roosevelt declared in a talk today at a luncheon given for Major General Leonard Wood and himself as a part of the Middle Western Patriotic celebration of this city.

Colonel Roosevelt asserted that if congress had taken the action three years ago that it has since the declaration of war, the war would have been over.

"We take heed of any peace utterances Germany prepares we will show that we are not prepared yet to go out in the world without a guardian," the colonel added. "America must make good the words of President Wilson 'make the world safe for Democracy.' For this reason we should declare war against Austria and Turkey."

Colonel Presented with Gold Quill.

At the conclusion of his talk Colonel Roosevelt was presented with a gold quill with the reminder that the pen is mightier than the sword.

"But I would rather have a sword," the colonel said, "this is a very exclusive war as far as I am concerned. I was blackmailed by the committee on administration."

After praising Major General Leonard Wood, Colonel Roosevelt said:

"Now that I have spoken to you of Americans who stand for and are representatives of America I now wish for a minute to speak to you of an American who represents the worst of American characteristics—Senator LaFollette.

LaFollette Serving Germany.

"Senator LaFollette is at this moment loyally and efficiently serving one country—Germany. He is acting in such fashion as to make him one of the most potent enemies of this country and a most sinister enemy of democracy. He claims and it is the emptiest of all claims to stand for democracy. He is doing everything in his power to enthrone autocracy under the German flag throughout the world by the attitude he is now taking toward the war. He is showing himself the worst enemy that Democracy has now alive.

"I read a couple of days ago of Senator LaFollette's utterances before an organization out in Minneapolis and hereafter any organization that asks Senator LaFollette to speak ought to be made to show conclusively why it should be considered a patriotic organization thereafter."

Major General Wood said "it is foolishness to say America can win the war in the air or with chemical devices. It can only be won with men and by sacrifice."

EXPLANATION GIVEN OF KORNILOFF REVOLT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—An official explanation of the Korniloff revolt issued here tonight by the Russian embassy tends to confirm accounts published in Petrograd, laying blame for the trouble upon Vladimir Lvov, the Duma member who informed Premier Kerensky that Korniloff demanded that he be made dictator.

Since the revolt was put down, according to the embassy a thorough reorganization has become necessary because the troops lacked confidence in their commanders, and changes are being made in administrative and army positions which will result in the greatest benefit. An embassy official said the death penalty for offenses in the rear of the army is being enforced. In regard to the report that the Bolshevik group of the Petrograd council of workmen and soldiers had put thru a resolution against the government it was said that at the last council out of membership of 1500 only 400 representatives were present and that the Bolshevik group were able to control the meeting.

TRADING WITH ENEMY BILL PASSES SENATE

House Will Accept Conference Report Today

Measure Will Then Be Sent To President for His Signature—Conferees Add Amendment Prohibiting Publication of Matter Made Non-Mailable by Espionage Act.

Washington, Sept. 24.—After brief debate the senate today adopted the conference report on the trading with the enemy bill, with only six negative votes. The house is expected to accept the report tomorrow and send the measure to the president for his signature.

Discussion today centered upon the amendment added by the conferees prohibiting the publication or distribution by any means of matter produced by any means of matter made non-mailable by the espionage act. The provision is designed to suppress entirely seditious publications barred from the mails but still circulating by express or otherwise.

Senators Norris and Cummings protested vigorously against the action of the conferees declaring it would permit the postmaster general to put out of business arbitrarily any newspaper or magazine without giving reasons. Senators King, Ransdell, Fletcher and Vardaman upheld the position, insisting that publications violating the espionage act should not be permitted to circulate.

The bill which passed both houses with little opposition forbids trading by Americans with enemies or allies of enemies, provides for a custodian of enemy funds, for regulation of foreign insurance companies, for licensing foreign language newspapers, for censorship of all foreign communication and authorizes the president to embargo imports.

ARGENTINE NAVY ORDERED MOBILIZED

Unusual Military Activity Reported in Republic—Question of Rupture With Germany Still Being Discussed by Congress.

Buenos Aires, Sept. 24.—Mobilization of the Argentine navy has been ordered at a rendezvous 37 kilometers from Buenos Aires. There is also unusual military activity in the republic. Altho this is ostensibly due to the general strike, a high official said today that the general staff has its eyes open to other necessities.

German influences are believed to be behind the railroad strike. Throughout the day it has been ascertained by the authorities, strike agitators were offering strikers orders on a German electric company with which to pay grocer and butcher bills.

The question of rupture with Germany is still being discussed by congress and the public notwithstanding Germany's recent notes. Many deputies say they have no confidence in Berlin, because if the German government disapproved of Von Luxemburg's despatches it should have taken action immediately against him.

The cabinet and deputies don't consider the question closed and there is widespread disapproval by the newspapers and deputies of the personal guarantee sent by Dr. Molina, Argentine minister at Berlin that Germany would keep its promises.

CAMP DODGE NOT READY FOR MEN

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 24.—Governor W. L. Harding today received a telegram from the war department informing him that no more Iowa drafted men would be sent to Camp Dodge until the cantonment until the camp was ready for them.

AMERICA'S NAME ENDEARED TO FRENCH

The ambassador says Major Murphy, head of the Red Cross committee and his staff have absorbed activities of many relief organizations retaining their experience and knowledge of conditions. "Hearty co-operation of General Pershing has been assured from the beginning," says the ambassador. "One of the auspicious, if indeed not essential factors for success is the cordial attitude of the French government towards the association and its witnesses failed to appear.

MEANS CHARGED WITH MURDER OF MRS. KING

State Rests Case at Preliminary Hearing Yesterday

No Motive of Action Given by State, But Hope to Bind Means Over to Grand Jury—Experts Testified That It Would Have Been Impossible for Widow to Shoot Herself.

Concord, N. C., Sept. 24.—The state rested its case at the preliminary hearing here today of Gaston B. Means, on a warrant charging him with the murder of Mrs. Maude A. King. No motive was mentioned, the state confining itself to an effort to show "probable cause" which would be sufficient to bind Means over to the grand jury.

An adjournment until tomorrow was taken immediately after the state finished presenting witnesses, the defense requesting time to confer on the evidence. Two experts testified today for the prosecution that in their opinion it would have been a physical impossibility for Mrs. King to have shot herself in the manner in which she received her fatal wound near here early on the night of August 29 last.

Means, who was the business agent of the wealthy widow, was with her at target practice at Blackwelder Springs when the shooting occurred and he told the coroner's jury that she shot herself accidentally.

Solicitor Hayden Clement, who prosecuted the prosecution avoided any mention of Means' business relations with Mrs. King or the fortune estimated at several millions which she inherited from her husband, J. C. King of Chicago. Authorities at Chicago investigated this feature when the Cook county coroner had the body exhumed and District Attorney Swann in New York also went into it as well as inquiring into reports that Means had corresponded with German organizations or agents.

Testimony today dealt only with events that happened after the arrival in North Carolina of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston B. Means and Mrs. King a short time before the woman met her death. Means was represented by eight lawyers.

Dr. William H. Burmeister of the coroner's physician of Cook county, Illinois, an expert on pistol wounds, described the course the bullet took from the back of the head about two inches above the opening of the left ear and declared it would have been impossible for Mrs. King to have inflicted the wound. She was right handed, he said, and could not have placed her right hand back of her head in such a manner as to fire the shot.

Dr. Otto Schulz, professor of pathology at Cornell University agreed with Dr. Burmeister.

R. M. Ritchey, hardware dealer, said he sold Means the automatic pistol with which Mrs. King was killed.

Captain W. S. Bingham testified he had frequently taken automobile rides with members of the Means family on which Mrs. King accompanied them and had several times seen Mrs. King fire a pistol. He was a member of the party on the trip on which Mrs. King met death but said he was about 140 yards distance when Means called to him and when he ran back Means said Mrs. King had shot herself accidentally.

The exact time of the woman's death has never been established to satisfaction of states and defense and neither has the amount of light from the moon which Captain Bingham said was sufficient to have allowed him to kill a rabbit.

SENATE TAKES UP WORK ON INSURANCE BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Work on the administration soldiers and sailors insurance bill recently passed by the house, was begun today by a senate finance sub-committee. Senator Smoot presented a substitute for the optional insurance clause which would give members of the military forces free government insurance of $2,000 during service, with insurance up to the $10,000 limit provided in the bill for men disabled or otherwise insurable at the end of the war. The latter policies would be at the rates provided by the bill but would be carried by private insurance companies, the government paying the difference. One effect would be to avoid establishment of a permanent insurance department.

No action was taken today on the substitute which is said to be approved by private insurance companies. The sub-committee hopes to report the bill to the full finance committee Wednesday or Thursday.

INFORMATION BY PIECE MEAL

Every little while the government at Washington lets loose some bit of documentary evidence to show German intrigue and how many were the offenses against the peace and dignity of the U. S. before this country finally entered the war. The people are getting to the point that they believe Washington has a great deal more information which would cause sensations if revealed. No doubt the government has its reasons for wanting the American people to receive this real insight of the European situation by degrees, for meanwhile the war preparations are speeding on. All the facts of German malignity at one time might be too much for both the business and the peace of mind of this country.

FROM NATURAL CAUSES.

A 100,000 ton coal pile owned by railroads at Michigan City is on fire, according to telegraphic dispatches, and in another part of the country a vast coal pile, the reserve storage for railroads is on fire. These reports are made in a way to indicate that probably some alien enemy has been busy with an effort to destroy this vast tonnage of coal and thus cripple the railroads and industry to some extent.

There is no use being alarmed by such reports or imagining more machinations on the part of our enemies than the facts warrant. Many a big pile of coal caught on fire from spontaneous combustion before this war was ever heard of, and where coal is stored in great quantities there will be other fires reported.

SPECIALY QUALIFIED.

Popular Mechanics comments on an unusual advertisement that appeared in a Chicago paper lately desiring the services of five hump backed men. The explanation of this strange want ad is more interesting than the announcement. It seems that a large envelope factory unable to fill its orders, decided to work nights as well as days. Long experience had demonstrated that in the use of certain machines women were better operators than men by reason of their hands being more delicate and nimble.

The owner does not believe in factory work at night for women and the men proved clumsy and slow. It was then that he set about to seek men who were well but physically incapable of heavy work. He decided that hump-backs had the necessary qualifications of more agile and sensitive touch and an actual test proved such to be the fact. Hence the ad. The suggestion which this incident offers may doubtless be applied to other lines of work.

KNIT FOR THE SOLDIERS.

Here is a severe indictment of women who are knitting Christmas gifts for friends instead of soldiers, taken from the Chicago Tribune:

"Why aren't more American women knitting?" is the frantic query of Maj. General Grayson M. P. Murphy, head of the American Red Cross in France. More American women are knitting, more than they have knitted for a century in America. Women are knitting everywhere and at every time. But most of them are knitting bright colored sweaters for themselves, for Christmas gifts to their women friends. It isn't one woman in ten who takes khaki or gray yarn out of the gay bag that swings from her arm.

This will be the worst winter that northern France has known. The supply of wood and other fuel which was available last winter has been materially decreased by the summer's warfare. And now there are not only the French and English armies and the thousands of refugees to be kept warm, but the American expeditionary force. Keeping warm in France this winter for the fighting armies will be a matter of clothing more than of fuel. If there is not enough warm clothing, death will reap a greater harvest this winter than war.

This isn't sentiment. It is cold fact.

Whenever a woman knits a gay colored sweater when she might be knitting for the desperate need overseas she is by her criminal negligence exposing some one to illness and possible death. Every ball of fancy yarn is one ball of yarn taken from the possible supply of khaki or gray. It is practically impossible to buy khaki yarn today, and the reason is that women have taken to fancy knitting with a fury with which almost nothing can be done about it.

The owner does not believe in factory work at night for women and the men proved clumsy and slow. It was then that he set about to seek no other fad has swept the country. There should be a yarn revolution. The extravagant use of brightly colored yarn should be made impossible. And women should be made to realize that knitting for themselves is as unpatriotic as a prodigal feast in wartime.

MANY GATHERED AT WATSON HOME

Long Time Resident of County Entertained Large Company of Friends Sunday.

Issac Watson famous throughout this section of the state as burgoo soup maker gave his annual burgoo dinner at his country home two miles northeast of Woodsom Sunday. Fully 250 neighbors and friends enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. Watson and the occasion proved one of great pleasure to all.

Two large kettles of burgoo as only Mr. Watson knows how had been prepared with all the ingredients that go to make it delicious. Tables were spread under a large tent and the dinner consisted of burgoo soup, pickles, crackers and coffee. There was plenty for everybody to eat for a time it was feared that Fred Schofield, candidate for county commissioner would not be satisfied. However, it turned out that even Schofield was finally compelled to eat.

One of the pleasant surprises of the day and one that rendered Mr. Watson speechless was the presentation of a gold headed cane. The presentation speech was made by T. H. Buckthorpe in a most happy manner.

The high regard in which Mrs. Joaquin is held is by no means limited to her own family circle. In time of sorrow she has been a helpful friend in many families and she is always ready to share whatever she has with any person less fortunate.

The event Sunday was greatly enjoyed by all present. In addition to members of the family the company included Mrs. J. W. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. George Souza and son Clarence; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Vieira, Mrs. Clarence Scott and daughter Mildred, Mrs. Henry Scott, Jr.; Miss Hazel Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lynn and daughter Helen. ## DAVID WARFIELD COMING OCTOBER 4

David Warfield will come to the Grand Opera House for one performance on Thursday night October 4th, in a revival of his world-wide success, "The Music Master". Never in the annals of this country has such an overwhelming success been recorded as that achieved by Mr. Warfield in this quaint and tender little play when it was first produced thirteen years ago. He appeared in it both in New York and on tour for six consecutive seasons, packing the theaters to the walls and creating new box-office records everywhere. "The Music Master" is the tenderest kind of a love story: the love off a father who seeks his lost child. As Anton Von Barwig, its leading character, Mr. Warfield is a refined, noble, simple and unpretentious musician, with a whimsical but deep seated sense of humor and a capacity for affection that shows little on the surface, but is in truth tragic in its depth and intensity. It is a picture of lonely grief that touches the deepest wells of pity and sympathy that Mr. Warfield presents in "The Music Master."

Social Events

Observed Birthday With Family Party.

Saturday was the sixty-first birthday of Mrs. John N. Joaquin and relatives planned to observe the anniversary Sunday. Accordingly by agreement they gathered at the Joaquin home on East Michigan avenue and brought bountiful supplies of good things to eat with them. The event was planned by her sisters and her daughter, Mrs. H. G. Lynn, and Mr. Joaquin was also apprised of the secret preparations. It was just about noon hour when the relatives began to arrive. Mrs. Joaquin thought nothing special about the first guests who came because her sisters are frequently Sunday visitors, but when others began to arrive she soon understood. The self-invited guests, as indicated, had an ample supply of eatables with them, took possession of the home and at 1 o'clock an elaborate dinner was in readiness. Mrs. Joaquin was the recipient of a number of useful presents in honor of the anniversary.

The high regard in which Mrs. Joaquin is held is by no means limited to her own family circle. In time of sorrow she has been a helpful friend in many families and she is always ready to share whatever she has with any person less fortunate.

The event Sunday was greatly enjoyed by all present. In addition to members of the family the company included Mrs. J. W. Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. George Souza and son Clarence; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Vieira, Mrs. Clarence Scott and daughter Mildred, Mrs. Henry Scott, Jr.; Miss Hazel Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lynn and daughter Helen. There were two birthday cakes and one of them had on it a tiny flag for every year of Mrs. Joaquin's life, and a patriotic spirit marked the occasion in several ways.

The high regard in which Mrs. Joaquin is held is by no means limited to her own family circle. In time of sorrow she has been a helpful friend in many families and she is always ready to share whatever she has with any person less fortunate.

FIRE DEPARTMENT MADE RUN MONDAY NIGHT

New Apparatus Given First Tryout at Fire—Second Run in 86 Days.

For the second time in 86 days and for the first time since the installation of the new motor apparatus, the fire department made a run Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The alarm came from the property at 459 South Sandy street, owned by the Railway and Light company and occupied by Walter Hill.

The blaze was caused by a lighted gas jet coming in contact with the wall. The woodwork was set on fire and the blaze got into the attic. The neighbors and workmen from the ice plant and gas plant were early on hand and had the blaze practically extinguished before the arrival of the department.

The motor apparatus worked in fine shape. The regular driver was at supper when the alarm was turned in. However, Chief Hunt was had all of the men practicing driving and Theodore Arisman was at the wheel Monday evening and took the engine to the fire in good shape and without mishap. The damage was estimated by Chief Hunt at $100.

ANOTHER SOLDIER LETTER

Houston, Texas, Sept. 17, 1917. Dear Father:

We arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning. We have a big Army "Y" here; you should see it. There are about 30,000 soldiers here, some mob. Big white auto trucks flying back and forth, cavalrymen riding up and down the road. The "Y" is full of soldiers right now so that you cannot get in. They have long benches for writing. There are special side tracks running up to the camp. We have about twenty-four big supply rooms over 1700 feet long. Mule trains are going back and forth with supplies. Colonels and majors riding their horses up and down.

There are 600 hundred auto trucks here. We are camped in a big pine forest. Every company has a big mess hall, ten shower baths, a toilet and electric lights in the tents. We are six miles from Houston, but a taxi will take you to town for a dime, I am told. We had a fine trip down here; Arkansas is sure some state; I would love to live there—like fun. The cotton is blooming all around us. I think there are more reptiles here than in Africa. Big snakes, little snakes, and sand lizards everywhere. There is plenty of work here too. All you hear is work, work—and more work. Believe me, but it is hot down here and the alkali water don't taste like Gravel Springs. Be sure and write, from Floyd.

RETURNS FROM REBEKAH MEET IN LOUISVILLE

Mrs. O. E. Tandy has returned to the city after attending the national convention of Rebekahs and I. O. F. sovereign grand lodge, held last week at Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Tandy found the sessions interesting and profitable and reports the convention one of the most enthusiastic she has ever attended. Large delegations were present from thirty-two states, and all participated in a monster parade one evening during the convention. Various entertainment features had been arranged by the Louisville lodges, including a banquet and a river excursion.

All officers were chosen to serve another term, and a resolution was adopted which provides for the election of officers every other year instead of every year as at present. Mrs. Tandy is now serving as marshal of the National Association of Rebekah Assemblies and next year will be a candidate for the office of treasurer. It was determined to hold the next national convention at St. Louis.

COLORED MEN IN SHOOTING AFFRAY

Claude King Wounded in Head By Bullet — William Carter His Assailant.

Claude King was shot in the head about noon Sunday by William Carter as the result of an altercation over money matters. Both parties are colored.

After the shooting Carter made his escape but later was arrested by Patrolman Baker and taken to the police station. King was taken to the office of Dr. W. P. Duncan who removed the bullet from his head. Both men were locked in the police station and kept until Monday morning. Carter was then taken before Justice Coons and gave bond in the sum of $100 with Ben Cohen as surety for his appearance on the charge of assault with intent to kill.

King and Carter tell different stories of the causes that lead up to the shooting. King alleges that he lost all his money in a crap game and wanted to borrow a dime from Carter. Carter refused the loan and in the altercation that followed Carter drew a gun and shot him.

Carter says that King wanted to borrow $5 and when he refused the loan started to "rock" him. It was then, Carter says, that he shot King. The shooting was done with a .32 calibre revolver. The bullet struck King in the forehead and ranged upward lodging under the scalp on the top of the head.

CONFERENCE ON WAR TAX BILL FAIL TO AGREE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Altho on the verge of a complete agreement on the war tax bill many times today the senate and house conferees again failed to get together and adjourned until tomorrow with the hope of concluding their long struggle.

Continued disputes over war excess profits taxation and a few minor matters blocked the agreement expected today by many of the conferees. The senate members were reported ready to accept the compromise plan of graduated war excess profits rates proposed by the house representatives when further dispute arose over renewed attempts to provide a flat exemption of 8 per cent of invested corporate capital.

It is generally agreed that any attempt on war excess profits will not materially change the senate's proposed gross levy of $1,060,000,000.

MORE SIDEWALKS DISCUSSED BY COUNCIL

Advertisements Will be Inserted for Walks in Several Streets—City Anti-Tuberculosis Tax Will not be Collected.

Sidewalks again occupied the center of the stage at the city council session Monday morning. Advertisements will at once be inserted for the construction of sidewalks on Independence avenue, Myrtle street, Ashland avenue, East North street, Chambers street, Mathers street and East College street, in instances where property owners have failed to carry out instructions of the city and put down walks.

Under department reports Mr. Cox made a statement with reference to the South Diamond street sewer, which is again in working order after roots which have clogged the pipe at various points have been removed. The trouble with this sewer is occasioned by the fact that trees south of Morton avenue were planted directly above the sewer and the roots interfere with the pipe. Mr. Cox mentioned a number of streets where temporary repairs are being made in the pavements with the expectation that the contractors will not be able to complete the new pavement before winter weather comes. Mr. Widmayer mentioned the approach from West State street to Diamond Court where brick have been loosened or removed clear up to the sidewalk. It will be the duty of the pavement contractors to put this approach back into condition, as will be true at other streets where approaches have been disturbed.

REV. W. R. LESLIE BEGINS PASTORATE HERE

New Centenary Minister Preached a Strong Discourse Sunday Morning—High Ideals of Christian Living Lifted Up.

At Centenary church Sunday morning the new pastor, Rev. W. R. Leslie, entered upon his work. "Practicing the Presence of God" was the theme and the minister used as a text Psalms 16:8: "I have set the Lord always before me." With this text, so lofty in its meaning, Rev. Mr. Leslie entered upon the pastorate which promises a period of church usefulness and growth. A few paragraphs of this excellent morning discourse follow:

"W. E. Gladstone, when asked how he accounted for his wonderful poise and self-control, replied that he had on the wall of his bed-room a placard. It was the first object to greet his eyes each morning and the last thing to attract his attention each night. This was the verse on the card, 'Thou will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee.'

"I like this old phrase of Jeremy Taylor which is our theme this morning, 'Practicing the Presence of God.' What are we more worth cultivating? What habit will bring greater riches into our life than the habit of staying our mind on God? It was good for Gladstone and it is good for you and me.

"In these turbulent times our greatest need is a vivid and commanding sense of God's nearness. Some of us are like Mr. Britting in the opening chapters of H. G. Wells' story. We have been neglecting the deeper realities. When Mr. Britting's son was killed in France the worldly father awoke to the unseen universe. He discovered God. So this war is 'stinging men wide awake' to that God which ever lives and loves. We are finding out that it is 'not by might nor by power, but by my spirit' that we are to attain fulness of life.

"Practicing God's presence affords us a perfect environment by keeping us in the presence of the beth. It instills stability and triumphant determination. 'Because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.' It gives us the illumination of God's face. 'In thy light we see light.' It bestows the richest joy. 'In thy presence is fulness of joy. It inspires radiant hope for time and eternity. 'At thy right hand are pleasures forever more.'

"In taking up this pastorate I realize that I am coming to a city of colleges and libraries and cultured men and women. I come not to lecture to you upon science or literature or philosophy. My mission is to make it easier for you to believe in God and to find Him as a very present Help and strength. I covet for you that growing sense of the divine presence which shall make you more than conquerors."

WILL MEET FOR COUNTY ORGANIZATION TODAY

Delegates from the twelve Morgan County Odd Fellows lodges will meet at the Dunlap hotel in this city at noon today for the purpose of perfecting a county organization.

Some time ago the initiative in the forming of a county organization was taken by Urania No. 243 and Illini No. 4 of this city. These lodges appointed committees which visited each of the ten lodges located throughout the county. Each lodge appointed a committee of three to attend the general meeting which will be held today.

At the meeting today officers will be elected and probably a committee named to draft by-laws to govern the organization. The organization should prove of much benefit to Odd Fellowship in Morgan County and judging from the enthusiasm which has been shown it will also be a live wire organization.

CHILD BADLY SCALDED.
Robert McGowan, the eighteen months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin McGowan of 335 West College street was badly scalded on the left arm Monday evening about 6:30 o'clock by water that accidentally splashed from a teakettle.

The mother was engaged in preparing supper and pushed the teakettle which was filled with boiling water, over to the edge of the stove. The kettle was jarred in some manner and a quantity of the water splashed out on the child which was sitting close to the stove. The left arm was badly scalded from the shoulder to the wrist.

Dr. Reid was called to the residence but had the child taken to his office where he gave the burn the necessary attention. The child suffered greatly for a time but was resting well last night.

TOO MANY TREES
Several autoists have complained of the proximity of trees to the bridge across the creek west of the Jerry Collins hill.

It is probable that the owners of the contiguous property have not thought of the matter but the branches of the trees so obstruct the view that several bad auto collisions have been barely averted. If some kind friend would see the owners of the trees they would doubtless be perfectly willing to trim them.

ALL DAY SERVICE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Large Audiences Present Sunday for Family Gathering.

A large number gathered in Central Christian church Sunday to take part in the annual home coming exercises of the church. The number that took dinner was estimated at 350 and there were others who attended the services who did not remain for dinner.

The services were of a helpful and inspiring character and much enthusiasm was shown and the work of the coming year is looked forward to hopefully. One of the features of the day was the musical program. At the morning service the anthem was "Who So Hath this World's Good" by Otis, given by a quartet, Mrs. Genevieve Clark Wilson, Mrs. Abe Weihl, Robert Boyd and Albert Strasser. The quartet also sang "I Am a Pilgrim," by Marston.

Missionary Interest
At the afternoon service two anthems were given, "Jesus Lover of My Soul," by Williamson and "God is Love," by Shelley. At the evening service Mrs. Abe Weihl and Mr. Strasser sang, "Withdraw Not Thou Thy Mercy."

One thing of especial interest was the effort put forth during the day to make the church a living link in the Home Missionary Society. The church already is a living link in the Foreign Missionary Society. From the interest shown Sunday it is hoped that the church will become a living link in the Home Missionary Society by next Sunday.

Rev. Arthur F. Ewert of White Hall delivered the sermon Sunday afternoon. Rev. Ewert's subject was "An Adequate Faith for a Changing World." Mr. Ewert presented two definitions of faith in a strong and clear manner. First he brought out the fact that faith means that the individual in the time of great emergencies and peril must believe in the purpose of God. Second, he emphasized the fact that one must not lose sight of the fact that God cares.

Character Building
At the evening services a large congregation heard the pastor, Rev. Myron L. Pontius, preach a strong sermon with "Character Building" as his subject. Three points were brought out by Dr. Pontius during the course of his sermon. The speaker called attention first, to hereditary tendencies which have a bearing on the character. Second, the influence of environment and third, the human will. In concluding the speaker said that in the building of character he would place heredity at five per cent, environment at ten per cent and human will at 85 per cent.

It was announced that the Senior Christian Endeavor would entertain the students of the colleges Tuesday evening in the church parlors. The Pastoral Helpers have decided to do Red Cross work at the meetings hereafter.

USE LESS WOOL

Lutherans Will Observe 400th Anniversary of Reformation

(By Rev. J. G. Kuppler)

Large preparations are being made for a worthy celebration of the Quadri-Centennial of the Reformation in Jacksonville, Sunday, September 30. This celebration is held in commemoration of the nailing of Dr. Martin Luther's celebrated ninety-five thesis to the church door of Wittenberg, Oct. 31, 1517. By this historic act the reformation of the church was begun.

The Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church of this city has invited its sister congregations at Chapin, Neelyville, Arenzville, Lyddya, Chanderly, Beardstown, Bath, New Berlin and Pleasant Plains to participate in a public celebration, and large delegations are expected from these localities next Sunday.

The citizens of Jacksonville are also most cordially invited.

The gymnasium auditorium of the David Prince school has been secured for this purpose. Two services will be held, a German service in the morning at 10 o'clock and an English service at 2:30 in the afternoon. Noted speakers have been secured for the occasion namely Rev. W. H. Dierker of Beardstown, who speaks in German, and the Rev. Louis J. Sieck of St. Louis, who will give an address in English.

The Lutheran Church in America and What It Stands For

A Lutheran minister preached in America and died on American soil eight months before the Pilgrim fathers landed on Plymouth Rock. It was a year before the "Mayflower" sailed from England that Captain Jens Munck, with two ships sailed from Denmark. He had with him sixty-six men. They were pious Lutheran men who brought with them their pastor. His name was Rasmus Jensen. They landed on Hudson Bay in August, 1619. The rigors of the climate and their hardships caused many of these sailors to die during the bleak winter. Captain Munck's diary tells of the work of Pastor Jensen, of his preaching and his death which occurred Feb. 20, 1620.

Among the earnest settlers in a number of the thirteen original states were Lutherans. Some of these played an important part in that early history. It was the Lutheran Conrad Weiser who, through his intelligent aid and decisions in the French and Indian wars brought them to a happy conclusion and the North American continent under Anglo-Saxon instead of Latin control. This, of course, meant the domination of the Protestant influences something for which every American citizen should hold this Lutheran colonist in grateful remembrance.

The oldest Lutheran congregation existing in America today is St. Mathews, New York City. Its charter is dated 1664, though it existed under oppression and without being organized before this date. At first this congregation was Dutch, then German, now almost entirely English. In 1638, nearly fifty years before the historical treaty made by William Penn with the Indians under Shakamoxon Elm, a ship of war and another smaller vessel laden with Swedish Lutherans arrived in this country and settled on the banks of the Delaware, after making a honorable purchase of their land from the Indians. It is making a modest but just claim to maintain that the friendly attitude of the savages toward William Penn was in a great measure due to the Christian labors and lives of these pious Lutherans who for nearly half a century previous had been practicing among them the righteous principles and brotherly love of the gospel.

Germans Arrived Last
German Lutherans destined to be the strongest element in the development of the Lutheran church in America were the last in coming. It was in 1709 that the great influx of German Lutherans into New York and Pennsylvania began. In 1734 the Lutheran Salzburgers, driven from their home in Austria, settled in Georgia. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg, who arrived in 1742, gathered the scattered Lutheran churches and became the founder of the Pennsylvania Ministerium in 1748. Before the revolution churches were formed throughout the colonies. Men prominent in the affairs of the country were numbered among their members.

When war began was Muhlenberg's eldest son, John Peter Gabriel, serving a Lutheran congregation in Virginia, gave notice to his congregation of his intention to go to war, and at the close of his farewell sermon uttered the historic words: "There is a time to preach and a time to fight and now the time to fight has come" and then throwing back his clerical robe, he stood before the congregation in a colonel's uniform and the next day he was off to war, many members of his congregation accompanying him. In 1785 he was chosen vice president of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Dr. Franklin being the president.

Col. Muhlenberg's statue is in the city hall plaza of Philadelphia, and the state of Pennsylvania has placed another statue of him in the monument hall at Washington. Col. Muhlenberg's brother, also a Lutheran pastor, was later elected into the legislature of Pennsylvania, and became president of the convention, which in 1787 ratified the constitution of the United States. Subsequently he was elected to the office of speaker in the first and third United States congress. It was among eastern Lutherans that the general synod was organized in 1820.

Christopher Ludwig, whose body rests in St. Michael's Lutheran cemetery, Philadelphia, was known as the baker general of the Continental army and was among the very first to give money with which to establish free schools in Pennsylvania, was a devoted Lutheran. So also was

LIBRARIES FOR OUR SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Opinions of Two Jacksonville Boys Who Have Gone to the Front on the Need for Good Books and Magazines.

Russell Finkerton, who enlisted from Jacksonville in the Spring and who is now at home on sick leave, said when the subject of books for the soldiers was mentioned to him "Do they need books? I should say they do."

He made the point that the boys not only need books for recreation but that they also need them in the hospitals.

Mark B. Hunt, who enlisted here in May said in a letter received in Jacksonville yesterday, "I hardly know what to say about books and magazines—that is as to choice. We haven't any of course, and anything you can send will be welcome."

Why Doesn't the Government Supply These Libraries?

Because we are engaged in a war in which the entire energy of the government is needed for the actual conflict. It was Secretary of War Newton D. Baker who appointed the Library War Council, with Frank A. Vanderlip, New York City, as chairman. Secretary Baker appointed this Library War Council because he knew that with the co-operation of the American Library Association the need for library facilities for the soldiers and sailors could best be presented to the country, and the necessary funds raised. The Library War Council is carrying out the commands of the government.

Wilhoit batted for James Smith and forced Robertson at the plate, but Holke singled and Kauff scored. The locals bunched three singles off Sallee in the seventh, which with an infield out gave them their lone run.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for this reason it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, it is taken internally and acts thru the blood in the Mucous Surfaces of the System. ## SALEM CHURCH PEOPLE VISITED OLD FRIENDS

Large Party Drove Sunday to Home of Mr. and Mrs. Davies of Monroe.

Members of the Salem Sunday school and aid society, together with a number of friends and neighbors, spent the day Sunday at the home of William Davies at Modesto. Mr. and Mrs. Davies were esteemed residents of the Salem neighborhood until last spring when they removed to Modesto. The trip was made by automobile and some in the party experienced blow outs, and it will be a day not soon to be forgotten by those present, as some sat in the road for an hour or two working with patience to patch up a tire so they could proceed. Those who had gone ahead became anxious and sent some one in search, and to make matters worse the latter took the wrong road and the delayed party arrived at the Davies home before the searchers. But finally all the troubles were over and all enjoyed the dinner.

The tables were spread under the beautiful trees on the lawn and every one did full justice to the good things to eat, of which there was an abundance. The afternoon was spent in a pleasant social way. The hospitality of the Davies home is such that the occasion was one of great enjoyment for the large number of guests. The party included Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyd; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Phillips and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson and sons; Mr. and Mrs. John Hodges and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Green; Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cully; Mrs. Sallie Hoagland and sons; Mrs. Etta Matthews, son and daughter; Mrs. Jessie Morrow of Brunswick, Neb.; Edward Allen, Dorothy Allen, Miss Alice Baker, Miss Dora Connolly, Samuel Maddox; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davies and daughters; Carl Pitner; Frances Pitner; Miss Sanders, Miss Fanny Masters of Lynyville; Mr. and Mrs. Austin King and family of Murrayville; Miss Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Jennie Fox, Miss Ruth Dunlap, Mrs. George Swain of Sinclair; Mrs. Eva Strawn and son and Miss Edith Ticknor.

THE GROWING GIRL

A girl when in her teens is passing through a critical period of her life. The transition from childhood to maturity is not always easy; consequently, in many cases health breaks down entirely and the girl goes into a decline and dies young. If she escapes this fate, she may fall into a state of permanent ill-health. It is of the utmost importance, in order to insure normal and healthy development, that proper precautions be taken, and nothing has proved more helpful than the faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the great woman's medicine and tonic.—Adv.

In early childhood, on account of the loss of his father, he was compelled to seek employment to help support his mother and family. He was united in marriage to Elizabeth May Miller, June 13, 1857 at Langoport, Indiana. Soon after he moved to Springfield, Mass., where he held a responsible position in the national armory, manufacturing war munitions, until 1864 when he removed to Nashville, Tenn., and together with his brother, engaged in the mercantile business, being there at the time of Hood's famous raid during the Civil War, and that time having a number of officers under Gen'l. Thomas as guests at his home during their stay in the city.

In the spring of 1865, Mr. Pratt and his brother sold their business and came to Illinois, entering land in Champaign county, which they improved, also, engaging in the mercantile business. Mr. Pratt being postmaster in the town of Pera, afterwards known as Ludlow, Ill. In 1867 Mr. Pratt and his family came to Jacksonville, Ill. His wife, Elizabeth M. Pratt died in November, 1889, and he was married a second time to Maria J. Paine, August 6, 1891. She died May 5, 1910. He is survived by one son, Lew H. Pratt, one granddaughter, Edna Pratt Owen, and three great grandchilren, Maynard, Helen and Sherwood Owen.

Mr. Pratt had been prominent in the business life of Jacksonville for many years, being in the employ of the Toledo, Wabash & Western (now Wabash) Railroad Company; afterwards connected with T. and F. Keener in the grain and lumber business. Later he engaged in the coal business, which he followed until 1910, when he retired from active duties.

Records show he was a lineal descendant of those engaged in the Revolutionary War, some of whom were troops in Rhode Island and under General Washington at Fort William in Boston. He was industrious, frugal and unostentatious; benevolent and hospitable; a kind-hearted neighbor; a true friend and a highly respected citizen. If Mr. Pratt's life has been a successful one, it has been owing more to sterling qualities than to those traits which were so easily apparent.

Since the death of his wife he has made his home with his son, who, together with his family, have left nothing undone to make the last days of a loving father the very best.

He was one of the charter members of the Modern Woodman camp in 1885. The funeral was conducted at the home of Louis Peipenbring, 121 West College avenue, at two p.m., by Rev. A. B. Morey, D. D. The bearers were Robert Kuechler, F. L. Sharpe, D. T. Helmrich and Robert Wakely. Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Jacksonville at the East and West side stores of the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co.; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's; in Versailles at A. G. Bates'; in Chapin at F. P. McKinney's; in Roodhouse at W. D. Berry's; in White Hall at the City Drug store; in Bluffs at F. T. Curtis'; in Pittsfield at J. H. Barber & Co.; in Loami at L. M. VanDeren's; in Davenport at E. G. Haug's; in Manchester at C. D. Chapman's; in Winchester at the City Drug Store.—Adv.

PURPOSE OF COUNCIL OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

Organization Is Authorized By Congress to Help Wilson Solve War Problems.

By Mrs. FREDERICK A. DOW.
Vice Chairman Woman's Committee C.

N. D., Illinois Division

More than a year ago Congress authorized a Council of National Defense to help the president solve the new problems that were coming so heavily upon him. This Council consisted of six members of the Cabinet and seven men chosen from the country at large for their special knowledge and experience, of the industries and resources of the country. It is only by concerted effort of the Woman Power of the State, that the great things of which we talk and dream can be accomplished.

WHO GETS THIS FINE STOCK AND GRAIN FARM

of 163 acres, located 6 miles of Barry, Illinois. Has a new house of 6 rooms, 2 porches, smoke house, hen house 10x20 ft., horse barn 36x40 ft., cattle barn 40x40 ft., and old cattle barn 36x40 ft., never falling spring. Fenced and cross fenced with woven wire. 130 acres tillable, balance in pasture and timber. This is a fine stock and grain farm, and the buildings are all new.

It plans to mobilize the woman power of the country to meet the present crisis, and it is hoped that the women's prompt response to the call has amply justified her in her promises of loyalty.

State Acts as Clearing House.

A registration of women thruout the United States is preparing a highly organized force ready to be used when the time of national need shall arise. Each state has its own organization following the plan of the National Committee to act as a clearing house and directing force for the war work, to make possible the government's plans for economy and thrift, to safeguard the condition of women and children in industry, and greatest need of all, to keep alive and properly working our charitable, reformatory and educational institutions.

Every woman is to be given an opportunity for patriotic service either at home or abroad.

This is the outline and working force of the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense. By the aid of its very simple machinery the State, and by the same method the local headquarters, will be able to turn the women of Illinois toward the sources of needed assistance. The headquarters in each town thruout the State and in each ward of the great cities resolves itself, into a real clearing house for women's activities. A war emergency problem purely local and usual, may quickly be given over to the agency best equipped to deal with the problem and bring it to final solution.

Service Is Keynote.

Its keynote is service regardless of all previous affiliations. The one thought in the mind of every member should be how she may best serve her country when it needs the assistance of every citizen.

The women's plans are not only for the tasks of war but for the tasks of peace, and they mean to meet their duties with wisdom, courage and devotion.

With all its simplicity, and all its elasticity and adaptability, this plan will not be easy of adoption by the American woman. The strong sense of individuality fostered by tradition and education will not easily bend itself to meet present conditions, but in the present crisis the individual, or the single club can do little or nothing to solve the problems or to lift the burdens that confront the country. It is only by concerted effort of the Woman Power of the State, that the great things of which we talk and dream can be accomplished.

The Evening Line-Up

Both children and grown-ups, with coughs and colds, are all the better for a dose of Foleys Honey and Tar at bed time. It wards off croup, stops tickling throat, and hacking coughs, and makes an otherwise feverish, sleepless night of coughing and distress, a quiet and restful one.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS. Mr. Chas. Baker, writer of the "How to" column, says other cough medicine, Foleys Honey and Tar is certain to bring quick relief. It is especially effective in cases of bad coughs, and we give it to our children and recommend it always as a safe remedy, for it contains no opiates.
